Look a little closer

The Begijnhof offers a quieter enclosure within central Amsterdam. Historic houses and religious spaces surround a green court, but this is also a residential setting. A considerate visit stays on the permitted route and follows posted visiting rules. Church access and any services have their own arrangements; silence and privacy matter more than finding a photograph.

Something to notice

Notice how the enclosed space changes the sounds of the city.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.
