Look a little closer

The Ancient Agora was a setting for civic, commercial and religious activity. Surviving foundations, the Temple of Hephaestus and the reconstructed Stoa of Attalos reveal different ways to understand that landscape. Use the official site interpretation rather than expecting every ruin to explain itself. Archaeological-site and museum arrangements should be checked for your chosen date.

Something to notice

Find a place where a low foundation changes how you imagine a public space.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.

YOUR DAY

Leave a little room

A detail, a feeling, a place to return to...
