Look a little closer

Casa Batlló transforms an urban house through color, curves and carefully handled light. The street façade invites comparisons with bones, scales and water, but the interior also rewards attention to doors, windows and everyday movement. Different tickets include different experiences. Leave time to examine practical details rather than looking only for a famous photograph.

Something to notice

Find a handle, a window and a curve. How does each guide the body or the eye?

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.
