Look a little closer

The Reichstag houses Germany’s parliament within a building shaped by destruction, reconstruction and political change. The glass dome offers a contemporary counterpoint to the historic exterior. Public exterior viewing and a registered visit are different experiences. Read the Bundestag’s current registration, identification and security requirements; a visit is subject to parliamentary business and availability.

Something to notice

Compare the solidity of the stone façade with the transparency of the dome.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.
