📍 ADDRESS

Caminito, between Magallanes and Del Valle Iberlucea, La Boca, Buenos Aires

🕒 VISITING

Open-air public lane: visit in daylight. Individual shops, performances and museums keep separate hours.

💰 The public lane is free. Food, performances, souvenirs and nearby museums are separate.

🗺️ GETTING THERE

🚶 On arrival

Use the public Caminito lane in the Magallanes and Del Valle Iberlucea area. Plan your return transport before leaving.

Check current official notices before visiting.
Facts checked 2026-10-11

Look a little closer

Caminito turns a short former railway passage into an open-air street museum. Its colorful sheet-metal buildings recall La Boca's immigrant working neighborhood and the artistic efforts of Benito Quinquela Martín and local residents. Enjoy the public lane at an unhurried pace, looking beyond the postcard colors.

Something to notice

Compare a painted wall, a wooden balcony and the cobblestones underfoot. Which small texture tells you the most about this street?

A little consideration

Ask before photographing performers or residents and agree prices before paid photos. Keep to the busy visitor area in daylight and avoid entering private buildings without permission.
