Look a little closer

MALBA brings modern and contemporary Latin American art into a bright museum in Palermo. The collection and changing exhibitions invite connections across countries, media and generations. Choose a few works to spend time with instead of trying to see every label and room at once.

Something to notice

Pick one work that makes you pause. Notice a color, a gesture and something you cannot explain immediately. Let your notes hold the question as well as the answer.

A little consideration

Follow room and photography rules; personal photos without flash are normally allowed. Leave oversized bags in the cloakroom and keep food and drinks outside galleries.

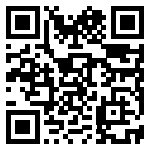

YOUR DAY

Leave a little room

A detail, a feeling, a place to return to...
