Look a little closer

San Pedro Claver’s church and museum spaces connect religious history with the lives of enslaved Africans brought through Cartagena. Approach the institution’s interpretation with attention to those people and their experiences, alongside the account of the Jesuit priest.

Something to notice

Look for whose voices are represented in the interpretation and whose experiences require further explanation.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.

YOUR DAY
