Look a little closer

The Royal Mile links the castle end of Edinburgh's Old Town with Holyrood. Its changing street names, narrow closes and larger civic spaces make the walk more varied than one continuous façade. Choose a short section and explore only permitted public passages. Homes, workplaces and religious buildings remain active uses among the visitor attractions.

Something to notice

Notice one close from the street. How does its narrow opening change your sense of depth?

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
