Look a little closer

The Bargello places sculpture and decorative arts inside a medieval civic building. Its courtyard and rooms encourage attention to objects from more than one viewpoint. Choose a few works and compare how material changes a figure's presence. Check the official opening calendar and current displays; museum-group tickets and individual buildings may follow different arrangements.

Something to notice

Walk around one sculpture where permitted. What changes between the front, side and back?

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.

YOUR DAY

Leave a little room

A detail, a feeling, a place to return to...
