Look a little closer

Praça do Comércio opens Lisbon's Baixa toward the Tagus. Arcaded buildings frame a large civic space, while the Rua Augusta arch draws the eye back into the street grid. Walk toward the public river edge and compare those two directions. The arch viewpoint, cafés and river activities are separate experiences with their own rules.

Something to notice

Stand clear of the walking flow and sketch the meeting of square, arch and river.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
