Look a little closer

Madrid Río gives the Manzanares a broad setting of paths, gardens and recreational spaces. Bridges connect different parts of the city while the riverside offers a less hurried route through it. Choose a manageable stretch and notice how planting and public infrastructure shape the experience.

Something to notice

Look at a bridge from the path. Notice how the river, planted banks and walking space fit together.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted paths, leave plants and wildlife undisturbed and take litter with you. Keep shared paths clear.

YOUR DAY
