Look a little closer

Cerro de la Gloria holds the Monument to the Army of the Andes above Parque General San Martín. Juan Manuel Ferrari's bronze and stone ensemble commemorates San Martín's campaign, and the hill places that history beside a wide view over Mendoza.

Something to notice

Confirm the current road and monument access before setting out; this is an uphill outing, not a city-centre stroll.

A little consideration

Respect the memorial, use established public approaches and do not climb the sculpture.
