Look a little closer

Nuevo Nativitas is one of Xochimilco's trajinera departure points, where painted boats connect visitors with a canal landscape rooted in chinampa agriculture. A boat outing is a purchased service, with routes and conditions that should be agreed before departure.

Something to notice

Observe the different uses of the canal from a permitted public area; keep litter and all objects out of the water.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.

YOUR DAY
