Look a little closer

Times Square gathers theaters, screens and pedestrian spaces around the meeting of Broadway and Seventh Avenue. Its intensity is part of the experience, but a closer look reveals small pauses among the crowds. Watch how people navigate the space rather than treating it only as a backdrop.

Something to notice

Stand clear of the walking flow. Notice one color, one sound and one quiet detail among the screens.

A little consideration

Keep paths and doorways clear. Respect residents, use marked crossings and ask before photographing people closely.

YOUR DAY

Leave a little room

A detail, a feeling, a place to return to...
