Look a little closer

The Seine riverbanks offer a change of pace beside the city's bridges and historic buildings. The pedestrian spaces of Parc Rives de Seine make room for walking and resting. Water levels, weather and works can change access, so keep your route flexible.

Something to notice

Watch the reflection beneath a bridge. Notice a difference between the upper street and the lower quay.

A little consideration

Keep paths and doorways clear. Respect residents, use marked crossings and ask before photographing people closely.
