Look a little closer

Charles Bridge joins the Old Town and Malá Strana across the Vltava. Its towers, statues and repeated arches give the crossing both rhythm and ceremony. Walk at a pace that leaves room for others, then look outward to understand the river setting. Bridge towers and nearby museums are separate visits with their own entry arrangements.

Something to notice

Notice how a statue changes against sky, rooftops and water as you move.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
