Look a little closer

Vyšehrad combines fortification walls, religious buildings, memorial spaces and gardens above the Vltava. A public walk can focus on the landscape and river views, while interiors have separate schedules. The cemetery is a place of remembrance. Choose a manageable circuit and take care on slopes and uneven paths rather than treating the site as one flat park.

Something to notice

Follow the line of a wall, then notice how the river shapes the city below.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
