Look a little closer

Petřín's hillside gardens offer a different pace from Prague's stone streets. Paths climb through planting and open toward views of the city. Slopes and steps make route choice important, and transport or attraction closures can change a visit. This guide covers the gardens; the lookout tower, mirror maze and other attractions have separate access arrangements.

Something to notice

Find a place where a gap in the trees frames a small part of the city.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
