Look a little closer

Piazza Navona keeps the elongated shape of an ancient stadium within a lively public square. Fountains and Baroque façades give the space its character. Walk around the edges as well as through the center, noticing how cafés, residents and visitors share the same setting.

Something to notice

Compare the shape of the square with a curved façade. Notice how each fountain changes the space around it.

A little consideration

Keep paths and doorways clear. Respect residents, use marked crossings and ask before photographing people closely.
