Facts checked 2026-10-12

Look a little closer

Trastevere's lanes and small squares offer a close view of everyday Rome. Around Piazza di Santa Maria in Trastevere, cafés and residential buildings sit beside historic religious architecture. Explore with an unhurried eye, remembering that these photogenic streets are also people's homes.

Something to notice

Notice an ivy-covered wall, a doorway and a small change in paving. Find a quieter corner before pausing.

A little consideration

Keep paths and doorways clear. Respect residents, use marked crossings and ask before photographing people closely.
