Look a little closer

Villa Borghese gives central Rome a large landscape of paths, gardens and cultural buildings. A park walk is distinct from admission to the museums within it. Choose a manageable area, enjoy the changing shade and leave room for a view or an unexpected detail.

Something to notice

Compare the outline of an umbrella pine with its shadow. Notice the city sounds becoming softer along a path.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted paths, leave plants and wildlife undisturbed and take litter with you. Keep shared paths clear.

YOUR DAY
