Look a little closer

The Spanish Steps connect Piazza di Spagna with the church above. Their broad flights and landings make a recognizable urban composition, with the Barcaccia fountain below. Keep the steps clear and enjoy the architecture while moving through rather than stopping in the walking flow.

Something to notice

Trace the curves of the stairway from the square. Notice how its landings change the rhythm of the climb.

A little consideration

Keep the stairway clear and choose another place to rest or eat. Leave stonework untouched and follow posted rules.

YOUR DAY
