Look a little closer

The de Young sits within Golden Gate Park, where its copper-colored exterior and observation tower contrast with the surrounding planting. Inside, different collections invite attention to how objects were made, used and displayed.

Something to notice

Compare a texture on the building with a texture in the garden. Notice how distance changes each surface.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.

YOUR DAY

Leave a little room

A detail, a feeling, a place to return to...
