Look a little closer

Ushuaia's former prison now holds museums devoted to maritime history, the prison, Antarctica and marine art. The compound connects the island's seafaring past with the difficult history of confinement and settlement.

Something to notice

The museum states that regular tickets are sold at its reception, not online; check baggage restrictions before visiting.

A little consideration

Keep bags off your back in galleries, do not touch objects and follow the no-flash personal-photography rules.
