Look a little closer

St Stephen’s Cathedral gives central Vienna a recognizable roof and tower profile. From the square, compare the patterned tiles with the carved stone below. Inside, visitor areas coexist with worship. Towers, catacombs and guided routes follow separate access rules, so choose deliberately and leave space for people using the cathedral as a religious place.

Something to notice

Find a repeated pattern on the roof and a different rhythm in the stonework.

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.
