Look a little closer

The Kunsthistorisches Museum places major art collections inside an elaborate nineteenth-century building. The stairway and galleries are part of the experience, but the objects reward a slower scale of looking. Choose one collection or a few rooms. Compare a material, a gesture or a daily-life detail across works rather than following only a list of masterpieces.

Something to notice

Select two objects made from different materials. How does each invite a different kind of attention?

A little consideration

Follow visitor and photography rules, leave objects and historic surfaces untouched, and give other people room.
