Look a little closer

Dufferin Terrace opens Old Québec toward the Saint Lawrence River. The boardwalk, gazebos and neighboring buildings create a public setting where a long view meets small architectural details. Walk only where current conditions permit, especially during winter or maintenance.

Something to notice

Follow the river in the view, then notice the nearest detail in wood, iron or stone.

A little consideration

Stay on permitted public paths, leave entrances clear and respect residents, workers and other visitors.
